

MSV

Annual Report
2021–22

THIS YEAR, PEOPLE GATHERED AT THE MSV TO LEARN, HAVE FUN, AND ...

celebrate community.

THE TRAILS beckoned.

Amid 200 newly planted trees, 71,463 people enjoyed this free-admission art park and engaged with

5 new art installations—including a kaleidoscope, a sound installation, and an elaborately carved arch.

THE GARDENS thrived.

Just when you thought the MSV formal gardens couldn't get more beautiful, they did, with the planting of 20 trees, 30 shrubs, 1,200 perennials, 2,250 annuals, and
9,475 bulbs.

EXHIBITIONS revealed.

In all, 9 exhibitions explored a variety of topics, including Norman Rockwell's America, National Geographic's animals, the Civil Rights Movement, African American contributions in the Valley, origami, and more.

PROGRAMS educated.

Learning engaged 8,407 participants of all ages.

Some 336 programs ranged from painting, papermaking, and sculpting to full-moon night hikes, outdoor yoga, and school tours.

EVENTS entertained.

More than 11,600 people flocked to the MSV to dance at Gardens at Night, observe Juneteenth, enjoy a wine festival, check out an antique car show, see artist demonstrations, and more.

THE COMMUNITY embraced.

Membership grew to 3,407 households, 1,001 donors supported the MSV, and 163,010 people visited, with 16,220 admitted free of charge, thanks to a generous community that made it all possible.

Thank You!

The Museum of the Shenandoah Valley relies on a group of dedicated supporters—members, donors, volunteers, corporate partners, and foundations—to fulfill its mission to preserve and enrich the cultural life and heritage of the Valley. It is with deep gratitude that we recognize those who have given so generously to the MSV. This list reflects cumulative contributions made between July 1, 2021, and June 30, 2022, and it includes unrestricted gifts as well as giving to special projects. For a detailed financial report and IRS Form 990, please contact the MSV director of finance at 540-662-1473, ext. 223, or visit www.theMSV.org.
