

MSV

Annual Report 2022–23

Nearly 200,000 people experienced the MSV this year.

The Trails welcomed

more than 95,500 people who walked, jogged, and biked through woods, fields, and wetlands in this free-admission art park.

The Gardens blossomed

with a redesigned Rose Garden and the planting of 52 trees and shrubs, 1,920 perennials,

3,030 annuals and vegetables, and 11,075 bulbs.

Ten Exhibitions explored

the work of Valley artist John Chumley, art built with

LEGO® bricks, miniature photography, Latin American art,

Regency-era paintings and furniture, and more.

Programs educated

as more than 10,000 participants of all ages participated in 325 workshops, talks, and tours to learn about topics ranging from metal casting to beekeeping.

Events celebrated

community as 19,363 people gathered at the Museum for Gardens at Night concerts, Juneteenth, pianoforte concerts, an antique car show, and other activities.

The Community sustained

the MSV as membership grew to 3,817 households, 1,256 donors supported our mission, volunteers provided more than 1,300 hours of service, and 9,481 visitors enjoyed free admission—thanks to your generosity.
