

MUSEUM OF THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Annual Report 2019–20

Cynthia Froula-Hahn
The Golden Thread, 2020
Acrylic on plaster/gauze cast

The Golden Thread represents the vital thread of purpose that weaves throughout the fabric of our lives. These golden threads represent Lou Ann Thompson, a native of Frederick County, VA, and my dear friend. Her inner strength shines through her regardless of her circumstances. And she has faced many challenges in her life.

Lou Ann has struggled with MS for many years, and adding breast cancer treatment proved to be a mighty challenge. But she did not let even this stop her engagement from the things she loved. She was involved with the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival for over 35 years, and not straying from her life's work, stepped up as president as she was recovering from her surgery. That is why I chose the imagery of apple blossoms. And then I remembered a phrase she had used: The Golden Thread.

This was the key for me for this sculpture, a golden thread connecting Lou Ann with her friends and family. It is connecting Lou Ann with the blossoms and Lou Ann is connecting the blossoms together. She never unlike any other.

LEARNING FOUND New Avenues.

Some 8,431 people of all ages participated in MSV education programs. Then, when a pandemic precluded the community from coming to the MSV, the MSV went to the community. New virtual programs included History in the Kitchen and Art at Happy Hour. Planning also got underway for the first virtual MSV field trips, to be delivered directly into classrooms beginning this fall.

ART INSPIRED in fresh ways.

Ten exhibitions were offered, and two—Big Bugs and a display of photographic prints—were presented in the gardens, providing an engaging respite for the community when it was most needed. And efforts to tell the Valley story continued, too, with 101 objects added to the Collection.

SEEDS FOR THE FUTURE were sown.

A Bamboo Grove opened, more than 10,000 plants went into the ground, and 9.3 million wildflower seeds were spread. Most exciting of all, work sped forward on The Trails at the MSV. This November, the trails will open, providing the community with a wonderful new art park that is free to all.

PEOPLE CONNECTED through the MSV.

Some 54,522 visitors came to the MSV while it was open, and membership was strong at 2,418. More than 8,300 people enjoyed MSV community programs, and an additional 223,979 people engaged with the MSV virtually. Even a Gardens at Night and the Annual Heritage Plant Sale took place online.

THE MSV prevailed.

The MSV temporarily closed its doors to visitors but found new ways to serve the community as a source of learning, engaging, connecting, and belonging.

Some 851 donors
provided the support that made it all possible, and for that, it was a year in which our gratitude overflowed.

Thank You!

The Museum of the Shenandoah Valley relies on a group of dedicated supporters—members, donors, volunteers, corporate partners, and foundations—to fulfill its mission to preserve and enrich the cultural life and heritage of the Valley. It is with deep gratitude that we recognize those who have given so generously to the MSV. This list reflects cumulative contributions made between July 1, 2019, and June 30, 2020, and it includes unrestricted gifts as well as giving to special projects such as The Trails at the MSV. For a detailed financial report and IRS Form 990, please contact the MSV director of finance at 540-662-1473, ext. 223, or visit www.theMSV.org.
